Organizational Setting and Reporting

This position is located in the Information Management Unit (IMU) at the United Nations Verification Mission in Colombia (UNVMC). The Associate Information Management Officer will report to the Chief IMU/UNVMC. The Information Management Unit provides guidance and support on data management, records management, and information management, and is strongly committed to the implementation of the UN Secretary-General's Data Strategy.

Responsibilities

Within delegated authority, the Associate Information Management Officer will be responsible for the following duties:

- Establishes a close working relationship and partnerships with key internal and external clients, to leverage the use of data and information management to support their programmatic areas and mandates.
- Assists in the exploration, analysis, identification, and acquisition of data sources to be used in reporting and decision making; ensures adequate inclusion of a gender perspective and other cross-cutting issues on data collection, analysis and reporting.
- Provides electronic record keeping support and advice to records-creating offices by advising on electronic record keeping system standards and compliance; oversees the digital records accessioning process; provides training in the use of metadata standards for the capture, maintenance and accessioning of digital archives; and manages system upgrades and migration for digital archives and databases.
- Supervises and undertakes records accessions and disposition functions, including records appraisal, by liaising with records-creating offices on the transfer and/or disposal of records and analysing and evaluating records for evidential and informational value in support of records appraisal.
- Supervises and undertakes archival processing activities by producing descriptive inventories; prepares mark-up of inventories for electronic dissemination; and monitors adherence to description, database, and preservation standards.
- Performs and supervises reference functions by advising internal and external users on holdings and accessibility and assisting in the administration of access and declassification activities.
• Supervises General Service staff and consultants relating to functions cited above.
• Monitors national and regional level political developments, ensuring a gender-sensitive analysis, and provides advice to the relevant UNVIMC components or UN agencies active on the ground.
• Performs other related duties, as required.

Core Values:

Professionalism: Knowledge of information management and records management with a substantive and thematic understanding of its impact on the mandate and operations. Ability to demonstrate conceptual, analytical, and evaluative skills and conduct independent research and analysis, identifying and assessing issues, formulating options and making conclusions and recommendations. Ability to provide maintenance and disposition of records, including appraisal and migration management, records preservation and description, as well as databases and research practices. Shows pride in work and in achievements; demonstrates professional competence and mastery of subject matter; is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results; is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns; shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges; remains calm in stressful situations; takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work.

Competencies:

Communication: Speaks and writes clearly and effectively; listens to others, correctly interprets messages from others and responds appropriately; asks questions to clarify and exhibits interest in having two-way communication; tailors language, tone, style and format to match audience; demonstrates openness in sharing information and keeping people informed.

Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others’ ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings.

Education:

Advance university degree (Master’s degree or equivalent) in social sciences, information science, information systems, data science, archival or a related field. First-level university degree in combination with additional two (2) years of qualifying experience may be accepted in lieu of the advanced university degree.
Experience:

- A minimum of two (2) years of progressively responsible experience in modern archives management, information management, data management, recordkeeping, library, or related area is required.

- A minimum of two (2) years of working experience providing a data-driven approach to reporting and analysis is desirable.

Languages:

English and French are the working languages of the United Nations Secretariat. For the position advertised, Fluency in English and Spanish (both oral and written) is required.

NOTE: Fluency equals a rating of "fluent" in all four areas (read, write, speak, understand) and "knowledge of" equals a rating of "confident" in two of the four areas.

United Nations Considerations:

Candidates will be required to meet the requirements of Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter as well as the requirements of the position. The United Nations is committed to the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity for all its human resources, including but not limited to respect for international human rights and humanitarian law.

Candidates may be subject to screening against these standards, including but not limited to whether they have committed or are alleged to have committed criminal offenses and/or violations of international human rights law and international humanitarian law.

The United Nations shall place no restrictions on the eligibility of men and women to participate in any capacity and under conditions of equality in its principal and subsidiary organs. (Charter of the United Nations - Chapter 3, article 8). The United Nations Secretariat is a non-smoking environment.

The United Nations is taking steps to improve gender parity at all levels. We are committed to an inclusive culture and exciting opportunities for women in security therefore, female applicants are highly encouraged to apply.

No Fee
